April 22nd

Dearest Mumm -

I just got these done

& beg to state all was well yesterday!
Concert went well - Mr. played about as usual - & feels very down with these slashings - Funny, from having too much tone she sounds weak - but it is better because all these little things <sup>or mine</sup> have been sounding -

The receipts - my share $90 odd American.
That is getting much better you see.
That means 924 pesos taken in - & lovely enthusiasm - Fiddle is so nice here it is most agreeable to play - I wore my velvet - I am it was just the thing - Mr. Conway took us out to lunch at country club - & then a long drive - fascinating country - an old temple about 4-6000 years old - been dug out of the lava - Then tea at a place with a charming garden - a German Johnny - but a cultured one - & Heifetz' name is mud in his house!!

Today a lunch at St Angel Inn - a mixture of Riverside & San Marco in Florence - 20 dames!
Large bouquet of sweet peas yesterday for me (immense lot) a colossal bunch of Madonnas for both today - & orchids are promised, a basketful, tomorrow!

The woman today gave us each a little silver sombrero, about 1 inch high & 2-3 across - ash tray - rather "cute" - I now find the Society of Musicians will have to have 3% of our earnings! Disgusting I call it - but never mind I only have 1 1/2% to pay - I must get it straight today without saying anything, but I believe we get 60% Let you know later - No we don't!!
Now I'll post this - air mail - There is an article & photo in their Review of Reviews - I'll send it when translated - rather heavy going to do & I get pretty weary - mangoes are quite decent - Oranges good - fair - figs starting !!!

A lady gave me a tiny little box yesterday with a minute rosary in it - so amusing - they go in so immensely for these tiny things here - They make elaborate scenes with people + donkeys, all in a walnut shell - + dressed peas in a grandly arranged room of a peanut! Perhaps those would amuse people? The laces are coarse and very expensive - not nice -

I'm well, in spite of a Jamale yesterday + "Molle" a red hot coal of a sauce on Turkey with tortillas - <sup>which are tough</sup> <sup>pancakes with no salt</sup> I fell burned! Very good flavor though - Jacarandas are now coming out! - Pomegranate bushes in full flower - Plumbago like hop vines - so dense -

I haven't got a glimpse of the mts yet - very smoky over there - + dust in the air they tell me - Wonderful place, no creepy crawlies, no flies or wasps + practically no mosquitoes - no blagas yet + nothing else - only two pretty little lizards ~~one~~ in the garden -

I enclose my place card from today Mexican feather work - they make dreadful large plaques in it - shades of Dennison I think -

Much love -

Kathleen -

Wish you were here - Love to Jenpe.
